

2024 CORPORATE SPONSORSHIP PROSPECTUS

Join the Robert H. Ivy Pennsylvania Plastic Surgery Society (RHIS) as a corporate partner and join a growing community. Help support the exchange of information, ideas, and knowledge among five leading residency programs, private practices across the state, and numerous researchers. Formed in 1954, RHIS has existed as a society to foster a high standard of practice for those surgeons operating in Pennsylvania. With your corporate partnership, you are gaining access to a diverse population working hard to expand its community.

The Society's corporate partners provide the organization unrestricted funds to support its overall mission. This funding assists in supporting continuing education efforts, fostering a strong member community, and providing networking opportunities for our members to keep forging forward.

PRODUCT THEATER INFORMATION

Product theaters provide an opportunity for our Green Ivy Partner to share science, education and/or product demonstrations of the latest innovations in plastic surgery to a captive audience. This is an ideal opportunity to hold promotional presentations and accommodate a larger audience that can then be directed back to your exhibit space after the presentation is over for further discussions.

- Program must not duplicate any sessions in the RHIS CME program; RHIS speakers may not present at a product theater if they are speaking on a similar topic as a part of the RHIS CME program.
- Topic and title subject to approval by RHIS planning committee.
- RHIS will make room arrangements and provide the following AV for your session: projector & screen, lectern microphone, slide advancer (any additional AV will be the responsibility of the hosting company)
